

The Story of Ruth — Chapter 2

Today we carry on with the story of Ruth. Do you remember we started it last week? If not, look back at the Children's Blog on our website and pick up the puppet show which told the first part. This is a short version:

A family (Elimelech and his wife Naomi and their sons) had left their homeland and gone to a neighbouring land to find food. They were away for 10 years. The sons grew up and married local girls. Then the father died and both of his sons. Naomi and her daughters-in-law were left as widows.

She decided to go back to her hometown which was Bethlehem. One daughter-in-law called Ruth insisted on going with her to help her because she loved her and Naomi was getting old.

Have you seen the second part of the story told by puppets? It is posted in this week's entry. You can read the Bible story in your Bible or here as well:

- For the word-smiths, there is a word search puzzle.
- For the craft-lovers, on the next two pages there are some heart shapes and a wheat picture. You can use them to make a picture something like this:

- There is a maze to solve,
- And a spot the difference puzzle.
