

Vestry Nominations 2020

Nominee: Don Battley

Position: Vestry

Nominated by: Gill Cranch

Seconded by: Max Cranch

Comments from nominator:

Fifty years as a priest, including 8 years as an archdeacon. Don is a former accountant, and has served on many vestries and finance committees.

Nominee: Brian Crosbie

Position: Vestry

Nominated by: Roy Smith

Seconded by: Wendy Fowler

Comments from nominator:

Brian is a trained engineer and currently works as a project manager since moving back to New Zealand from the UK. He would have valuable insight in the area of property management and maintenance at St Stephen's. While relatively new to us, Brian spent many years worshipping in the Catholic church. He is a devoted family man, with two lovely girls and wife Mel, and spends precious free time doing DIY or on the boat with his family.

Nominee: Wendy Fowler

Position: Vestry

Nominated by: Don Battley

Seconded by: Christina Jensen

Comments from nominator:

Current vestry secretary and vestry member for the past two years, devoted to families work and children's work, and part of the 10:00 worship team. She is a trained teacher, sincere Christian, and exercises giftings in hospitality.

Nominee: Gill Henderson

Position: Vestry

Nominated by: Alison Vedder

Seconded by: Roy Smith

Comments from nominator:

Gill is a committed Christian and has many years of experience in the Anglican tradition. She serves St Stephen's in a number of areas, as organist, home group leader, librarian and in the op-shop, and in the past has led mainly music. She has served on the 2019 Vestry and brings a calm and careful consideration to all matters, and her words while few are always pertinent.

Nominee: Di Hillas

Position: Vestry

Nominated by: Gill Cranch

Seconded by: Sue Kroger

Comments from nominator:

Di has been an active member of St. Stephen's Church family for approximately 20 years. She has gifts of hospitality and has been a long-standing member of the mainly music team. She has helped with the Alpha courses and is enthusiastic for the Gospel. She has an open and caring attitude.

Nominee: Jo Nonweiler

Position: Vestry

Nominated by: Wendy Fowler

Seconded by: Anne Aspden

Comments from nominator:

Jo brings a current perspective as mum of two young boys and a keen heart to develop and grow our childrens' programs at St Stephens. She has previous experience in marketing, a degree in technology, and a master's degree in teaching statistics. Jo has spent time on the mission field as a logistician and is well theologically read. She has a love for showing hospitality. Jo has spent a lifetime following God and would have fresh and unique ideas for engaging our church community.

Nominee: Roy Smith

Position: Peoples Warden
Vestry

Nominated by: Wendy Fowler

Seconded by: Alison Vedder

Comments from nominator:

Roy has spent a great many years serving St Stephen's with his wife Sue in a great host of capacities. He faithfully serves in many aspects of running the Sunday Morning service and on vestry, and is currently leading Family Alpha as well as planning a Prayer Course for later this year. Roy is wonderful at relating to people and especially encouraging to those newer to faith.

Nominee: Torben Sorensen

Position: Vestry

Nominated by: Bruce Vedder

Seconded by: Craig Fowler

Comments from nominator:

Previous experience of working on vestry, and is current treasurer. Familiar with business administration. Proven ability to work collaboratively in a team environment. Strong faith and servant heart.
