

Vestry Nominations 2023

Nominee: Andrew Bruce-Brand
Position: People's Warden, Vestry

Nominated by: Alison Vedder
Seconded by: Bruce Vedder

Comments from nominator:
 A current member of Vestry, Andrew has been a faithful member of St Stephen's since 2017. He has a good understanding of processes and is a good listener. He considers issues carefully and is a team player.

Nominee: Craig Fowler
Position: Vestry

Nominated by: Gillian Henderson
Seconded by: Gillian Cranch

Comments from nominator:
 Craig will be well known to members of the 10am service because of his lively, committed leadership of our worship with his guitar playing. It is important that Vestry is in touch with the needs of young families and Craig would be able to make an important contribution in this area. His professional life is very relevant as he is an Associate Professor of Communications at Massey University focussing on intergenerational relationships.

Nominee: Christina Jensen
Position: Vestry

Nominated by: Alison Vedder
Seconded by: Uta Humphries

Comments from nominator: A faithful member of St Stephen's for many years, Christina has accepted nomination to Vestry after a break of 3 years. Christina brings to Vestry a good knowledge of Health and Safety needs and processes. She is collaborative by nature.

Nominee: Michael Ng
Position: Vestry

Nominated by: Alison Vedder
Seconded by: Torben Sorensen

Comments from nominator:
 Current Vestry member with a clear strong faith and parent viewpoint on children's ministry. He has freely given his time and energy to technology systems development at St Stephen's which has been invaluable. A great ideas person.
